NOTICE

DHEC: Statute, Regulation and Policy Review

Recently, Governor Nikki Haley established a Regulatory Review Task Force to evaluate South Carolina's current regulatory burdens on businesses and to propose recommendations to relieve those burdens. As part of this review, the Task Force will evaluate reports submitted by agencies that identify current and proposed statutes, rules, regulations, and policies that are a burden on South Carolina's economy. To that end, all Cabinet agencies must submit a written report to the Task Force by May 15, 2013. The Governor's order also encouraged other executive agencies, like DHEC, to participate.

DHEC fully supports this important initiative by Governor Haley and invites the public, including businesses, employees, professional associations, conservation organizations, and any other affected person or entity to comment on current and proposed statutes and regulations posted by DHEC at <http://www.scdhec.gov/administration/regulations-policies.htm>, or to comment on any other current or proposed South Carolina statute, rule, regulation or policy promulgated or implemented by DHEC that may unduly burden businesses or employers.

To ensure all comments are given due consideration, please:

1. Provide your name, your company's name, and your contact information.
2. Specify and cite the statute, rule, regulation or policy to which each comment applies.

3. If the comment applies to a proposed statute, rule, regulation or policy, provide a copy of or reference to the proposal.
4. Specifically state how the statute, rule, regulation or policy unduly burdens you or your business.
5. If possible, provide alternative approaches or language you believe will reduce the burden of the provision on you or your business while still meeting the intent or goal of the statute, rule, regulation or policy.
6. Submit your written comments by 5:00 p.m. on March 27, 2013, to DHEC, Office of Planning, 2600 Bull Street, Columbia, South Carolina, 29201 or by electronic mail to regulationcomments@dhec.sc.gov.
