

February 1, 2002 - 22 responses (48%)

DISPOSAL OF EUTHANIZED DOGS

Synopsis: Of the 22 respondents the majority dispose of euthanized dogs in a county landfill (82%), have no contract with anyone for disposal (55%), and have no prohibition on burial of dogs on county property (100%).

County	How Disposed	Contract with Company	Prohibit Burial on County Property
Aiken	County landfill	No	No
Beaufort	Transported to Jasper County landfill	Jasper County landfill fee is twice the "normal rate", but don't know what that is. Rate is by weight.	No, but think there is a prohibition within the city limits.
Berkeley	County landfill	No	No
Charleston	County landfill	No	No
Colleton	County landfill	No	No
Darlington	Transported to Lee County landfill	Lee County landfill ($31.50/ton)	No
Dorchester	County landfill	No	No
Florence	Transported to Lee County landfill	Lee County landfill ($33/ton)	No
Georgetown	County landfill	Humane Society	No
Greenville	County landfill	Humane Society	No
Greenwood	County landfill	No	No
Hampton	County landfill	Non-profit animal shelter to which the county contributes funding	No
Kershaw	County landfill	Contract with Columbia Container - lump sum	No
Laurens	Buried on county property	No	No
Lexington	Buried in Richland County landfill	Contract with Columbia Container - pay $258/month for can - emptied six times/week and taken per contract with Waste Management to Richland County landfill	No
Newberry	Bagged and taken to transfer station for disposal in county landfill	No	No

County	How Disposed	Contract with Company	Prohibit Burial on County Property
Orangeburg	County landfill	No	No
Pickens	Cremated at the pound - ashes spread for fertilizer	No	No
Richland	Transported to City of Columbia Animal Shelter for euthanization and cremation	Arrangement with City of Columbia - taken care of in holding fee	No
Spartanburg	Cremated at the animal shelter - ashes deposited at county landfill	Humane Society	No
Sumter	County landfill	No	No
Union	Buried on county property	No	No