

Municipal Arrestees Housed in County Jails

County	Does your county charge municipalities for housing their arrestees in your detention center?	How much do you charge to house municipal arrestees?	How did you determine the charge to house municipal arrestees? What is the fee structure?	Is your county's detention center operated under the Sheriff or is it operated as separate department under the county council?	Does your budget reflect revenues and expenses for municipal arrestees versus other county detainees?	Comments/suggestions for a county considering charges for municipal prisoners
Aiken	No					It has been talked about informally but never actually taken up by council.
Anderson	No
Bamberg	Yes	16.00 per day	agreement w/ cities	Detention Center is operated as a separate department under county council.	no
Barnwell	Yes	$12.00 for the first day and $18.00 every day after	until sentencing	Detention Center is operated as a separate department under county council.	no.	OUr county needs to charge more per inmate
Charleston	No
Colleton	No
Darlington	No
Florence	Yes	$36.00 per day per inmate	Municipalities - $36.00 Others - $52.00 Federal based on contract	Detention Center is operated under the Sheriff.
Georgetown	Yes
Greenville	Yes	The daily rate is $50.32; however, we charge by the hour ($50.32 / 24) to encourage a speeder release.	The initial fee was set many years ago and is increased annually by any increase to the CPI for the preceeding year.	Detention Center is operated as a separate department under county council.	The County budget projects the municipal payment as a separate revenue in the general fund.	An hourly charge encourages faster release times by municipalities. In addition, when an inmate has multiple charges with a combination of high court charges with municipal charges, you should consider pro-rating the hourly fee and charge a fee for the municipal charge until it is dismissed or otherwise resolved.
Hampton	No
Horry	Yes	$8.75 per quarter of a day totaling $35.00 per day	An agreement made several years ago by a former county administrator. It does not reflect our current actual daily housing costs.	Detention Center is operated under the Sheriff.		We pay municipalities for housing county inmates arrested by county police and housed there temporarily until picked up by the transport vans.
Japser	No

Kershaw	Yes	$21.55 per prisoner for same day release ; $43.10 per prisoner per day for overnight stays. The revenue budget for the 2007-2008 fiscal year for housing city prisoners is $50,000.00.	Fee structure was determined in 2001 based upon the US Marshal Service formula and through joint cooperation between the county and municipalities to come to a mutually acceptable charge structure.	Detention Center is operated as a separate department under county council.	No. The county has a separate budget line for the revenue generated from housing city prisoners, but no separation on the expenditure side.	There are many issues involved in charging municipalities for the housing of city prisoners. Before the process is started, you will need to have answers to the inevitable questions that will be presented by the municipalities concerning its residents already paying for detention services through the county taxes they already pay every year.
Lancaster	No, but the city reimburses us for meals, takes care of their inmates medical expenses, and pays us $1,000 per year.
Laurens	Yes	$20 per day	for the housing of inmates who are incarcerated for municipal charges(i.e., drunk and disorderly, disturbing the peace.) The county does not charge for inmates charged with mores serious crimes refereds to General Sessions Court.	Detention Center is operated under the Sheriff.
Newberry	No
Oconee	No
Pickens	Yes	$12.00 per day		Detention Center is operated under the Sheriff.
Richland	Yes
